

NR development renamed for former Mayor Garito

The New Rochelle Neighborhood Revitalization Corporation (NRNRC) and 180 Union Avenue Owner LP. announced that the Senior Residences, part of the West End Affordable Housing Development in New Rochelle, has been named Garito Manor at Union Square. Garito Manor, named after Frank J. Garito, NRNRC President, who was born and raised in New Rochelle and served as Mayor of New Rochelle from 1970-1975, has special meaning for a development that was achieved due to Garito's vision for affordable housing in the West End of New Rochelle over 30 years ago. "Frank Garito is a visionary and has worked tirelessly in New Rochelle communities to promote home ownership and help build new, often multi-generational affordable housing developments for over 30 years. The Boards of these organizations have honored him in the naming of this development in recognition of Frank's guidance and leadership," stated Charles J. DePasquale, Executive Vice President of NRNRC.
